Release of Liability

MEDICAL LIABILITY INFORMATION: It is the responsibility of all intramural participants to ascertain whether their own health conditions make it advisable to participate in a particular sport. All participants in the intramural program are strongly advised to have medical insurance coverage. In case of injury, minimum first aid emergency treatment (ice, bandages) will be administered by the Drayson Center staff members. After an injury has initially been treated, further medical treatment becomes the responsibility of the injured individual.

CONDUCT: Any acts of aggressive physical/verbal violence will not be tolerated. Players guilty of such an action before, during or after an intramural contest will be suspended from further play. All leagues are recreational and Christian behavior is expected. No refund on player's fees will be given. Credit may be requested towards participation in another sport..
